

The First Tee of Roanoke Valley Need Based Scholarship Application

The First Tee of Roanoke Valley's primary mission is to provide young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity and sportsmanship. The First Tee program teaches children lessons that lay the foundation needed to meet the many challenges of life. In support of this mission, scholarships have been made available to help introduce the game's traditions, values, history and science to juniors throughout southwest Virginia.
